

MAPP values...

1. Its members and sponsors and is committed to providing a return on investment; offering more than a dollar's worth of benefits for a dollar's worth of dues;
2. The spirit of camaraderie where individuals take actions to help one another;
3. Sharing between individuals;
4. Contributions of individual members and believes that participation builds return on investment;
5. The collective intelligence of its members, respects it, trusts it, and protects it;
6. The business ethics of honesty, integrity, and responsiveness.
